

LEGAL AID CAR TALK

BUYING A USED CAR can and should be a positive experience. But the process of purchasing a vehicle is not as simple as it may appear. When you buy a used car, you are actually purchasing two things: the car and the financing plan. Many people do not realize this and spend all of their time shopping for a car, while neglecting to find acceptable financing—leading to financial disaster.

There are many questions to answer when you are planning to purchase a used car. Finding the right answers to these questions before you buy and finance a car will end up saving you time, money, and lots of frustration. Finding acceptable financing will also ensure that you do not get taken advantage of by dealers looking to make a quick sale.

The Legal Aid Justice Center offers FREE ADVICE about how to find a reliable car and a fair financing plan. Our Legal Aid Car Talk program is designed to help lead you through the process of buying a used car.

We offer advice and information on:

- How to locate a reliable car
- What to consider when deciding how to pay for your purchase
- What you can do if you encounter problems with your car after the purchase
